2.40.020-P Student Participation

BOARD POLICY

(1) The district affirms the proposition that student input and participation is important to committees dealing with decisions that affect the students. Therefore, committees shall provide opportunities for student participation, input and involvement, except for matters which are reserved for discussion with district employees or are legally reserved for a specific party. Examples of appropriate instances for student representation include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Any curriculum design and evaluation committees;

(b) Committees regarding testing, benchmarks and standards;

(c) Committees on district budget or policy;

(d) Committees regarding the selection of principals, administrators and faculty, with exceptions for specific components involving confidential personnel information;

(e) Ad hoc committees;

(f) Committees involving the planning or discussion of activities and events;

(g) Committees dealing with the principles and philosophies of the district; and

(h) Site councils.
