Field trip policies comparison

Policy Provisions	Policy Provisions	Current Version (2019)	Version 3 from Board member
District recognizes value of special activities to the total school program.	Yes	Yes	Yes, includes making the experiences equitable & inclusive for all students
The stated priorities are educational value, student safety and well-being, appropriate behavior by all participants, and selecting suitable adult supervision from school staff or community volunteers	Yes	Yes	No
Staff organizing extended trips must inform building administrators ahead of time to ensure continuity of instruction for students staying on campus. These plans must be shared with the school community and followed to prevent any disruption.	No	Yes	No
Written parental permission is required for each trip, and the signed form, including acknowledgment of conduct guidelines, must be kept on file for at least one year.	Yes	No	No
The superintendent will create materials to ensure students and supervisors understand conduct standards and district policies, including rules on alcohol and tobacco, handling illness or accidents, and communication procedures in discipline cases.	Yes	No	No
All out-of-state travel requires prior Board approval, based on an acceptable plan covering travel, budget, parental involvement, student and supervisor orientation, and administrator support.	Yes	Out of state travel more than 150 miles from PEC requires Board approval	No
The district may charge a fee for an off-campus trip when the trip is considered optional to the district’s regular school program.	Yes	No	No
"Senior trips" are specifically addressed	Yes	No	No

Non-sponsored field trips: Teachers who want to guide students on social excursions unrelated to the instructional program. The unique professional status of staff members makes it impossible to separate school-sponsored from informal non-school-sponsored trips.	Yes	Yes	The AD may authorize separate requirements for non-District sponsored activities & Travel Study Programs
The district prohibits staff involvement in developing, planning and supervising trips represented as "school, class, club or other," other than what is allowed under this policy and the implementing administrative directives.	Yes	Yes	The AD may authorize separate requirements for non-District sponsored activities & Travel Study Programs
Ski Programs - Administrative directive 4.40.051-AD Types of Clubs Authorized points out that ski clubs which go beyond the study of the sport and actually involve mountain trips are not approved because of problems of supervision and safety. Nevertheless, booster clubs and other parent organizations may assume primary responsibility for insurance and other arrangements or schools may arrange to provide credit for off-campus ski programs.	Yes	No	No
Travel Study Programs: involves student travel that are planned, marketed, & conducted by organizations other than PPS. These are not considered PPS-sponsored.	No	Yes	The AD may authorize separate requirements for non-District sponsored activities & Travel Study Programs
Schools and staff to submit field trip requests for review, and approval or denial, prior to any planned activities.	No	Yes	No
When planning a trip, avoid factors that will prohibit student participation, including financial burden, hazards or barriers for students arising from discriminatory policies/practices based on race, religion, culture, gender orientation, sexual identity, or immigration status.	No	Yes	Yes, includes making the experiences equitable & inclusive for all students
Students & supervisors need to be acquainted with & comply with relevant District policies, ADs, & other guidance including the student handbook.	No	Yes	No
Board of Education may request an annual report of field trip activities	No	No	Yes