7.RP.A.1 - Candlelight Dinner

☐ I can calculate unit rates when ratios involve fractions, building from 6th grade where I calculated unit rates with whole numbers.

☐ I can interpret unit rates to understand real-world quantities, extending my 6th grade understanding of ratio meaning.

Answer each question. Use numbers, words, and/or pictures to explain your thinking.

Close to Proficient CP • I can solve the CP problem correctly. • My error(s) in the PR and/or HP question(s) is conceptual, not a calculation error. • My work is only partially shown or only shown on some problems.	Write the unit rate for the complex fraction below. $\frac{\frac{1}{3}}{\frac{1}{2}}$
Proficient (PR) I met CP criteria, and… • My work/ justification is shown with no, or 1, minor error in computation.	Eliza walked 1 ¼ miles in ⅕ of an hour. What is her walking rate in miles per hour?

- "Summative" #1 for SBG
- At the end of each standard

Show all your work using numbers, words, and/or pictures to explain your thinking.

1. Calculate the unit rate: Keep your work in fraction form. (7.RP.A.1)

¾ TBSP brown sugar
½ TBSP baking soda

2. Eliza walked 1 ½ miles in ¾ of an hour. What is her walking rate in miles per hour? Keep your work in fraction form.(7.RP.A.1)

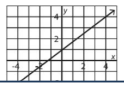

3. Which representation shows a proportional relationship? Select all that apply. (7.RP.A.2)

Shifts in Literacy Instruction

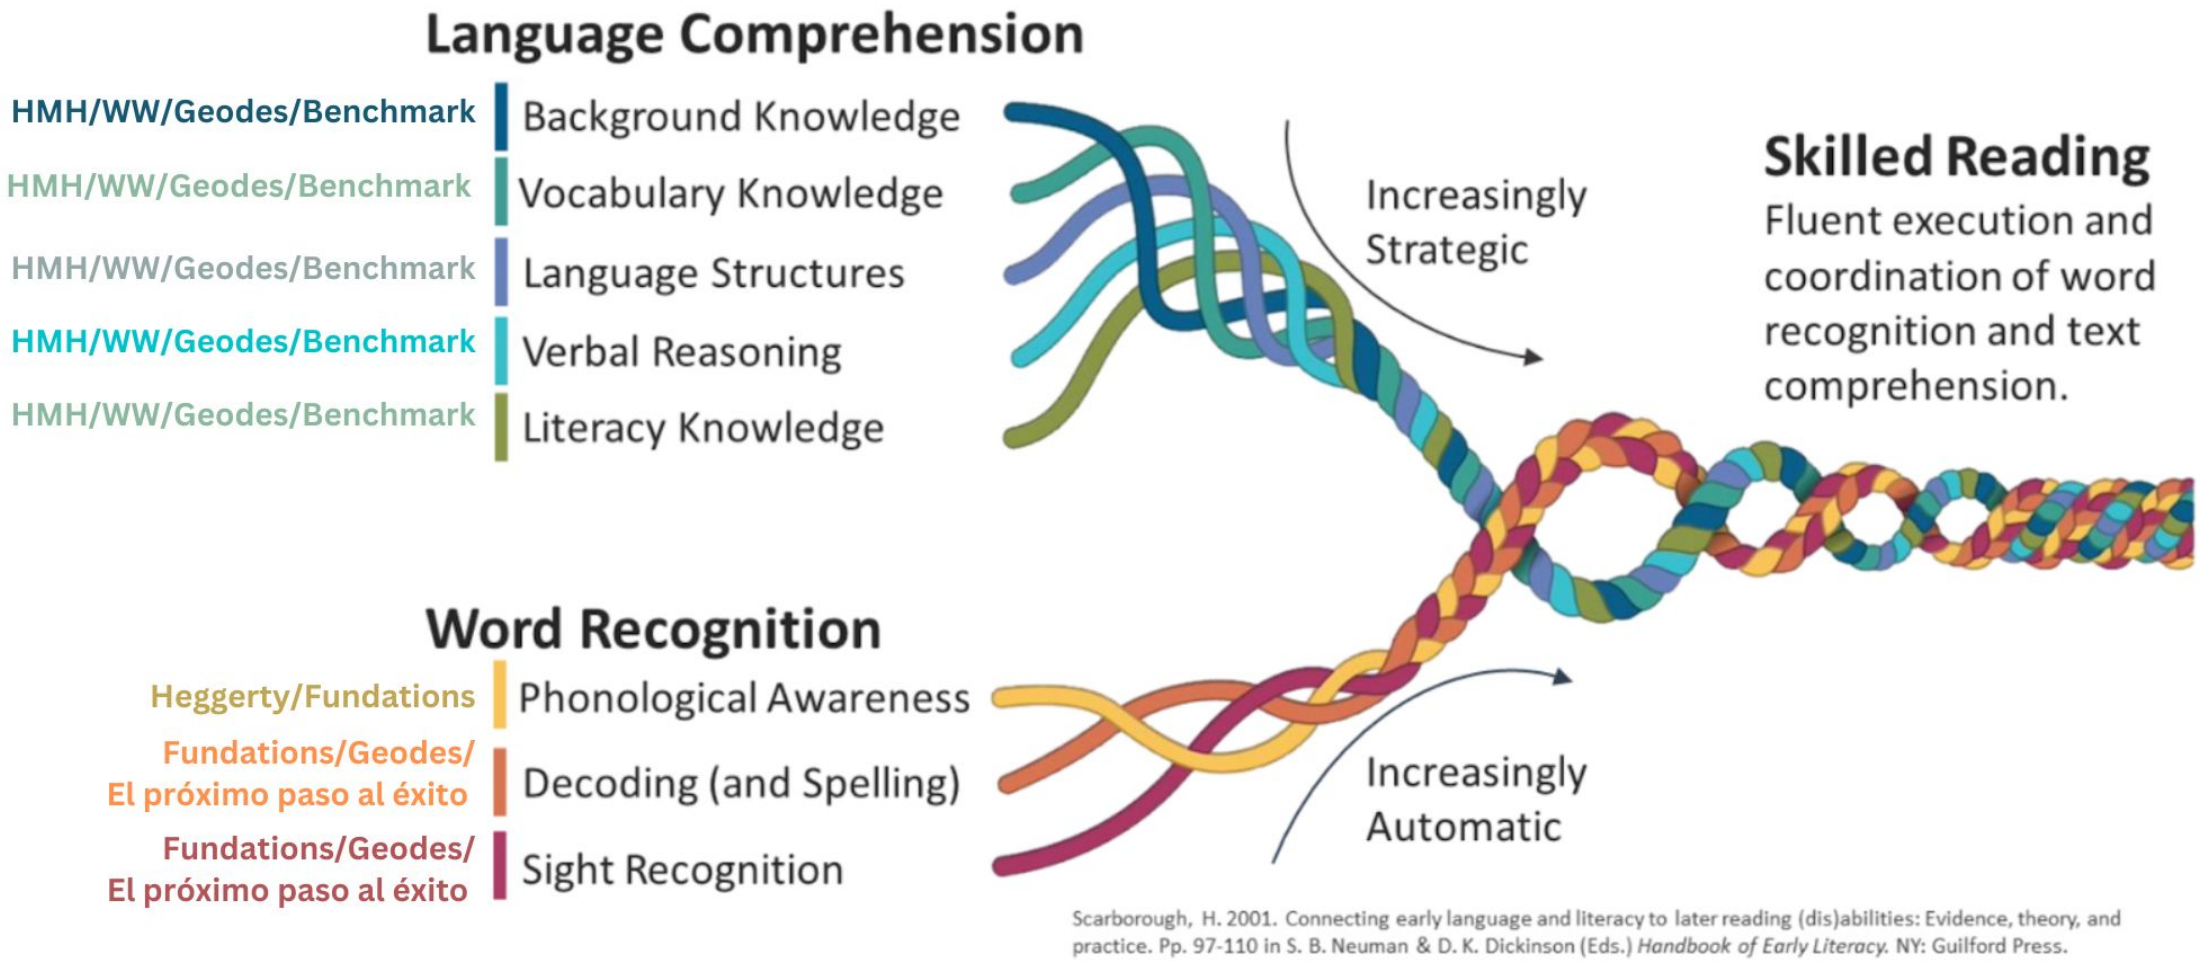

Previously

- Balanced Literacy approach not grounded in research (“readers & writers workshop”)
- Inconsistent implementation of instructional practices
- Heavy reliance on leveled texts and strategies
- Uneven access to ELA resources across schools

Currently

- Structured Literacy grounded in research
- Explicit instruction in foundational skills integrated with reading, writing, speaking, and listening (K-3)
- All students reading, writing, speaking about grade-level texts
- Comprehensive K–5 HQIM implemented districtwide
- Greater coherence and consistency across classrooms

Assessments

PPS uses multiple measures across the year to understand student reading, writing, and language development.

1. Ongoing Classroom Checks (Daily/Weekly)

- Checks for understanding built into lessons
- Feedback through discussion, writing, and small groups

2. Curriculum-Based Assessments (Each Unit)

- End-of-unit tasks measure reading, writing, and language skills
- Paper-based with digital writing options in upper grades

3. District Assessment Calendar (Grade-Level Benchmarks)

- Pacing guides and benchmark windows ensure consistency
- Data supports planning and targeted student support

Lesson 26 of 34 Lessons

Part 1 (60 minutes): Students are analyzing Hatchet by Gary Paulsen to explain how Brian has changed and what brought about that change. Students complete small quiz to demonstrate their understanding.

Part 2 (15 minutes): Students work on their own mountain survival story making it more interesting to read by adding an exploded moment.

Part 3 (15 minutes): Students learn meanings of author's words with suffixes.

Lesson Plan

BRIGHT SPOT at Jason Lee Elementary

Students discuss and analyze the book, Hatchet to learn about how the main character changes and learns to survive the wilderness when his plane crashes on the mountain. Students use this learning to write their own solo mountain survival story.

Core Shifts

- Core Action 1 - High-Quality Texts: Is the lesson focused on a high-quality text(s)?
- Core Action 2 - High Quality Questions and Tasks: Does this lesson employ questions and tasks which integrate the standards and build students' comprehension of the text(s) and its meaning?
- Core Action 3 - Student Ownership: Are all students responsible for doing the thinking in this classroom?

Into Literature (HMH):

Curriculum Implementation: Are teachers implementing the district-adopted curriculum with integrity?

- Educators follow the established scope and sequence of grade level standards using the adopted curriculum (one Into Lit unit is assigned to each quarter).
- Educators use grade level texts and other curricular resources to engage students in meaningful tasks through reading, writing, speaking, and listening.
- Educators use assessments in the adopted curriculum to monitor student learning, provide formative feedback and determine student levels of proficiency.

8th Grade Q3 Unit Overview

During the third quarter, 8th grade students will study works by celebrated authors including Nikki Grimes (Bronx Masquerade) and Sandra Cisneros (The House on Mango Street).

To meet Reading, Writing, Speaking, and Listening standards, students will also analyze texts by poets Audre Lorde and Pat Mora.

This unit culminates in two summative assessments, a comprehensive reading exam and a writing assignment, which including planning, drafting, and revising.
