Current Year Budget Update

The Q2 Budget Gap of $22.5 million has been closed by:

- Mid-year controls for all discretionary spending ($10.5 million) March-June
- Furlough days at various levels across all staff ($12 million)
- Preliminary Q3 data is on target*

Furlough day agreements are preventing staff reductions in addition to the preliminary recommendation for 2026-27.

2026-27 Year Outlook

- Preliminary estimate of $50 million is the minimum based on current year data
  - Levy revenue down $5 million
  - Expenses up $7.5 million (continued controls for discretionary* spending)
- Preliminary Recommendation for Reductions plus additional strategies will be included in the Proposed Budget on April 28, 2026

Discretionary spending means not required by state, federal, or local regulations, and/or life-safety operational requirements

Examples
Mandatory	Discretionary
Minimum student instructional hours	Some staff travel and Professional Development
Free and Appropriate Public Education (FAPE) for students with IEP's	Use of some substitutes, overtime, and other supplemental staffing
Home to school transportation over 1 mile	Some technology and instructional materials

Budget Principles

Principles create a shared understanding of the overarching values that underpin budget development.

- ➔ Providing students with an exceptional educational experience and ensuring their academic success should drive the budget process
- ➔ Decisions should be driven by data
- ➔ Base resourcing decisions on cost-effectiveness
- ➔ Prioritize the Core Program in all schools
- ➔ Critically re-examine patterns of spending
- ➔ Provide every student with equitable access
- ➔ Take a long-term perspective
- ➔ Be transparent

District Continuous Improvement Plan:
Four Goal Areas

CBRC Charter

MISSION

The mission of the Community Budget Review Committee (CBRC) is to review, evaluate, and make recommendations to the Board of Education (Board) regarding the Superintendent's Proposed Budget and other budgetary issues identified by the CBRC or the Board. The CBRC serves as an advisory group to the elected members of the Board.

STRUCTURE

The CBRC is composed of eight to thirteen volunteer members. From an applicant pool, members are selected and appointed by the Board to a three-year term, and may serve up to three terms. Student members are appointed to one-year terms.
