Public Comment

There was no public comment.

Follow up items from Committee Chair

Director Sulivan shared that the Board will receive the report from the Bond Performance Auditors at a July or August Board meeting. She also shared that Board Members agreed to monitor the recommendations of the Bond Auditors within the Board Committees.

Update to the 2025-2026 Audit Committee Work Plan and Meeting Agenda

Janise Hansen presented the updated Committee Work Plan.

Status update on the Annual Comprehensive Financial Report (ACFR) and the audit of compliance with federal grant requirements (called the Single Audit)

Michelle Morrison did not have any additional information to share.

Contracts Audit: Status of the Implementation of Outstanding Recommendations

Janise Hansen began by sharing her justification for the focus of contracts managed by the Racial Equity and Social Justice team. The Committee members had questions about the timing for data used when evaluating their contracts, how staff monitors progress on the contracts and suggestions to update the cover memo template to include sharing information about what changes in practice may have occurred to help meet the goals of the contract. Dr. Adams shared that the SMART goals have been revised to align with the District Continuous Improvement Plan.

Dr. Adams shared that principals were able to review the contracted partners in their buildings prior to their contracts being eligible for renewal.

There were questions about how they monitor progress. There were questions about how to include contract management into an employee's evaluation. Dr. Adams reminded the Committee that a manager could not share an employee's evaluation to prove compliance with such a requirement. There were questions about whether their team and partners have what they need. He also confirmed that his team performed site visits at each school every year.

He shared that Principals were able to review the partners before they considered whether or not to renew a contract.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 5:34 pm by Committee Chair Patte Sullivan.
