Pursuant to notice made by posting to the Board's public notices webpage and emailed to persons on the mailing list, a Portland Public Schools Board of Education Community Engagement Session was held at the Kellogg Middle School, 3400 SE 69th Ave, Portland, OR 97206, and streamed live at: https://www.youtube.com/@ppsboardofeducation/live

Attendance

Board Members Present: Christy Splitt, Patte Sullivan, VIrginia La Forte, Stephanie Engelsman, Eddie Wang, Student Representative Ian Ritorto

Staff: Margaret Calvert - Assistant Superintendent; Dr. Dan Carpenter - Principal

Call to Order and Introductions

The meeting was called to order at 2:07 pm.

Welcome + Grounding + Framing
Margaret Calvert opened the session and Principal Carpenter welcomed those in attendance. Board Members and Student Representative Ritorto introduced themselves and shared what they hoped to take away from the engagement session.
Margaret Calvert provided some context for the need to consolidate schools, including enrolment data and trends.

Interactive Polling
Participants were asked to share what schools and grade levels they were representing, and student graphics information

Small + Whole Group Discussion
Participants moved into small groups for discussion, and took interactive polls about their individual experiences.

Neighborhood Gallery Walk
Participants walked to district maps placed around the room that showed each school with their enrollment numbers and utilization rates.

Ranking the Factors
Participants were asked to rank which of the following factors were important to them: pathways, demographics, boundaries, use of space, balanced programs, and impact. Participants had a chance to ask clarifying questions and state what some of their priorities were.

Closing
Board Members closed with sharing what they heard from the participants in the engagement session. Next steps on the timeline for decision and implementation, and information on additional engagement sessions were provided.

Adjournment

The session ended at 3:58 pm.
