Superintendent delivers the 2026-27 Proposed Budget

Staff: Kristina Howard, Renard Adams, Michelle Morrison

The Board convened as the Budget Committee.Superintendent Armstrong delivered her budget message.Staff presented the proposed 2026–27 budget. Board members expressed appreciation for the detailed budget materials and the District's efforts to protect student-facing positions despite ongoing fiscal challenges. They requested additional information in future budget documents, including data on specialized programs, school-level student need and resource allocation, and actual student-to-teacher ratios and class sizes. The Board also discussed the need for organizational restructuring and requested a three-year staffing plan outlining anticipated staffing reductions, opportunities to streamline central administration, and strategies to strengthen teacher and principal input in decision-making. Additional discussion focused on director-level reductions, rising PERS employer costs, enrollment declines and their impact on school funding, plans to rebuild District reserves, and advocacy for access to the Educational Stability Fund at the state level. The Board as the Budget Committee adjourned.

Break: 8:24 pm to 8:31 pm

Bond Program Update

Staff: Sarah Norman, TJ Hopkins, Joanna Evenson

Staff provided an update on the 2017, 2020, and 2025 Bond Programs, including project progress and budget status. Board members asked questions about project timelines, facility planning, and implementation, and requested continued communication on major projects, future facility use, student transitions during construction, and technology planning. Discussion also highlighted the importance of community engagement and maximizing the reuse of District resources where appropriate.

Discussion: 7.10.020-P Districtwide Advocacy and Fundraising

Board members discussed the implementation of the Districtwide Advocacy and Fundraising Policy, considering perspectives from Board members, student representatives, and community partners on the role of local school foundations, equity, and fundraising. Discussion centered on the pace of implementation, the importance of clear communication, and whether to pause the policy. While acknowledging implementation challenges, Board members generally expressed interest in monitoring the policy's effectiveness over time and considering future refinements, while reaffirming their commitment to equitable access to resources for all students within the District.

Board Reflections: Rightsizing Public Engagement

Board members discussed feedback from the Rightsizing and Growing Great Schools engagement process and identified several areas for continued exploration, including enrollment patterns, school choice, facility investments, and program offerings. Members emphasized the importance of understanding community priorities, ensuring broad and inclusive engagement, and maintaining a focus on equity and accessibility as the process moves forward. The Board also expressed appreciation for the engagement efforts to date and encouraged continued outreach and communication to support informed community participation.

Other Business, Committee Referrals, and Future Agenda Items

Board members discussed revisiting Policy 7291, Public Contracting Rules, and requested additional clarification regarding the process for reconsideration. Board members also discussed the Board Office budget and wondered if any remaining funds could be used to help support Earth Stock. Chair Wang read a statement in response to the proposed Multnomah County budget cuts to SUN Community Schools. The Board stated support to sign on to a letter to urge the County to restore any proposed cuts.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 11:34 pm by Board Chair Eddie Wang.
